

December 7, 2017 Meeting Report

Exec. Coach Kat White talked about how members can "close the gap" during the interview so they'd land the job offer. She also challenged everyone to choose a day during which you'd give gratitude for every part of that day as it goes along. As she said, "It will make you feel great and even the 'no' you get can be a course correction that will benefit you."